Dr. Beenish Parvez, BDS, MDS (Root Canal Specialist)

Dr. Beenish Parvez is the driving force behind Heart n Health Dental Clinic, bringing with her a wealth of expertise and a passion for dentistry. With a Bachelor's in Dental Surgery (BDS) from Kothiwal Dental College and Research Centre, Moradabad, and a Master's in Dental Surgery (MDS) from Indraprastha Dental College & Hospital, Dr. Beenish has established herself as a renowned Root Canal Specialist.

Throughout her career, Dr. Beenish has treated over 5,000 patients in Delhi since 2011, earning a reputation for her ability to handle complex dental cases with ease. Her dedication to excellence has been recognized through numerous accolades, including a Gold Medal for academic excellence during her postgraduate studies.

Dr. Beenish's professional journey includes notable associations with esteemed institutions and dental clinics. She has served as a Lecturer at Subharti Dental College in Meerut for 2.5 years, where she imparted her knowledge and expertise to aspiring dental professionals. Additionally, she has contributed her skills as a Resident Dentist at Annapurna Charitable Hospital in Meerut, providing compassionate dental care to those in need.

As a Visiting Consultant at various leading dental clinics in Delhi, including Gupta Dental Clinic and Implant Center, Durgapuri, and Dr. Sandeep Malhotra's Smile Dental Clinic Naveen Shahdra, Dr. Beenish has demonstrated her commitment to expanding access to quality dental care across the community.

Dr. Beenish's areas of expertise extend beyond clinical practice to include patient education and community outreach. She regularly organizes free dental check-up camps, particularly targeting underprivileged communities, as part of her mission to promote oral health awareness and accessibility.

With a patient-centered approach, Dr. Beenish Parvez and her team at Heart n Health Dental Clinic are dedicated to providing comprehensive dental services that prioritize patient comfort, safety, and satisfaction.
